Tired of hiding a part of yourself?

Gay and Bi Married Men s Group

Identity House:

Currently in a straight marriage, in the process of breaking up or recently out of your marriage?

This interactive support group will provide a safe and dynamic space for men who are exploring their sexuality while in a straight marriage or seeking to establish a new identity outside of marriage. While sharing similarities and differences about being married, members of the group will provide each other with mutual support, creative ways of redesigning your life and making peace with your marriage.

The open discussion will cover coming out to parents, spouse and children; sexuality; creative the gay/bi life you want; developing a new relationship with your wife; coming to terms with shame, guilt and homophobia; staying in or leaving the marriage; and acceptance.

Gay and Bi Married Men's Group starts Wednesday nights in mid November from 6:30-8pm. Pre-screening is required.

Pre-Screening date:
November 7th: 6:30pm
